this temporary entrance which is located on the main staff car park and adjacent to the Academy's theatre. This will be our Reception until the official opening of the new building in January 2026.

Tomorrow, students will finish for Easter at 12.20pm before we formally close A Block at a celebration event with our Alumni in the early evening. Early on Thursday morning, work will start to move our IT, resources and furniture into the temporary block, ready for teaching. We are also having a new phone system installed which is due to go live after the holiday; we respectfully ask for patience whilst our staff adjust to this new system.
