Personal appearance

- Smart appearance at all times is important.
- Shirts must be tucked in neatly.
- Due to statutory Health & Safety legislation false eyelashes and long nails are not permitted
- No jewellery other than a single stud or sleeper in each ear along with a simple, small pendant on a chain may be worn in school. All jewellery must be removable for practical subjects. The school takes no responsibility for any jewellery that is worn.

The Principal, or a person authorised by the Principal, may ask you to remedy a breach of the school's rules on appearance or uniform.
